

I have enjoyed the freedom from bothersome phone calls I used to receive before being put on the do not call registry. Although I may have done business with a company, I do NOT necessarily want them to call me to telemarket me and try to get me to purchase other products or services. If I want something from their company, I WILL CALL THEM. Please keep the law as is.